SUFFRAGE VICTORY IN ILLINOIS

To be Celebrated by the National American Woman Suffrage Association

MEETING IN WASHINGTON

Forty-Fifth Annual Convention Began Sessions Today—May Remove the National Headquarters of Association.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Nov. 29.—Financial affairs of the National American Woman Suffrage association form the chief topic of discussion at the forty-fifth annual convention of the association which began here today in connection with the sessions of the National College Women's Suffrage association and the suffrage school to be conducted by the Congressional Union.

The association's financial affairs will be brought formally to the attention of the convention on Tuesday when a committee will present an amendment to the constitution to provide an additional tax upon the budgets of the constituent organizations. The members of these organizations already are taxed ten cents annually for the support of the national body.

Most of the 500 accredited delegates to the convention have arrived. Many alternates are here to attend. It is estimated more than 1000 accredited delegates and alternates will attend the sessions.

The formal meetings of the convention will not begin until Monday. Addresses of welcome and the responses are to be followed by a celebration of the suffrage victory in Illinois. Then will come an address by the Federal Suffrage Amendment and the annual address of the association's president, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw.

The first real business session begins Tuesday morning with the presentation of the report of the committee that framed the financial amendment to the association's constitution. Already there have been expressed a variety of opinions on the advisability of adopting the amendment, especially among the membership of the larger state organizations and the great independent bodies which only with the last year or two finally became affiliated with the national association.

The independent bodies contend that as they are large and collect large sums for the advancement of the suffrage cause their tax for the support of the national body will be out of proportion. On the other hand the national officers contend that the new financial scheme is made necessary if the national body is to push forward the campaign for universal suffrage in this country. They declare that the 10 cent a member tax is not commensurate with the dignity of the national body nor the cause that it represents.

The independent bodies are powerful but according to the national officers their activities heretofore have been directed toward advancing the cause in their respective localities. One of these is the Congressional Union of Washington, organized for the advancement of the federal constitutional amendment through congress.

Another is the Woman's Political Union of New York. Both have large budgets and under the proposed new fiscal plan they would be taxed heavily to support the national organization.

Another subject to be fought out on the floor of the convention will (Continued from Page One)

MORE THAN MILLION WORDS IN APPEAL OF JOHN H. PATTERSON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Cincinnati, Nov. 29.—President John H. Patterson and twenty-eight other officials or former officials of the National Cash Register company of Dayton, O., who were convicted last year of violating the criminal section of the Sherman anti-trust law, filed an appeal in the United States district court of appeals here today.

Despite the fact that the appeal is only a condensed form of the case, it contained more than a million words and was written on 2,039 pages.

It is the most voluminous appeal ever presented to the local court.

Death Roll of the Deer Hunters Large

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 29.—This year's death roll among the deer hunters in Wisconsin is the largest ever recorded. Accidents reported up to today resulted in the death of 22 hunters and the injury of 23. The season will close tomorrow.

SAYRES SAIL ON HONEYMOON TRIP ABROAD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Nov. 29.—The elusive white house bride and bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre—avoiding the gaily decorated gangway and bunting bedecked pathway arranged for them, slipped quietly on the liner George Washington through the second cabin today and sailed away for Europe on their honeymoon. A great crowd that gathered on the docks at Hoboken was keenly disappointed at not seeing them and even President Wilson did not know of daughter's and son-in-law's arrival on the ship until he found them in their cabin five minutes before sailing time.

Mr. Wilson accompanied by Miss Eleanor Wilson and Dr. Carey T. Grayson, reached the boat half an hour before the George Washington was due to start.

The ship's officers stood at attention as he came on deck and the band played The Star Spangled Banner. The crowd cheered. There was a wait of 15 minutes for the Sayres. Nobody seemed to know where they were. The captain of the liner was growing nervous.

Finally, the president entered the suite assigned to the pair and to his surprise there they were, with a few friends and many flowers. The band struck up Mendelssohn's wedding march as the hawesers were cast off.

Among the floral pieces presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sayre was a cluster of American beauty roses given by a committee representing the Hoboken, N. J., letter carriers, on behalf of all letter carriers in the United States.

BECKER WILL APPEAL CASE TO HIGHER COURT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Nov. 29.—Twenty-five reasons why Police Lieutenant Charles Becker should not be executed for the murder of Herman Rosen—the gambler, will be presented next week to the state court of appeals. Becker is now in Sing Sing prison, under sentence of execution. His attorneys said today that the court would probably devote four days to hearing arguments on his appeal from conviction.

Becker says the appellant's brief, is a "victim of the greatest conspiracy of the age. He was not given a chance for his life. The effect of the ruling of the court made the trial a mockery."

One of the principal arguments in Becker's behalf will be that Sam Schepps, the chief corroborative witness for the state, was an accomplice. His attorneys complain that the trial was rushed through and that Becker was convicted by public opinion.

NIGHT OF RIOTING RESULTS

When Students Meet and Denounce Eight Army Officers at Zabern

NUMBER ARE INJURED

By Being Prodded by Soldiers' Bayonets—Scores of Townspeople and Civilian Officers Placed Under Arrest.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Zabern, Alsace, Germany, Nov. 29.—Scores of townspeople, including several civilian officers were under arrest here today as the result of a night of rioting. The disturbance was so violent at times that the German troops cleared the main streets at the point of the bayonet.

The demonstrations were designed to express the indignation of the townspeople at certain insulting remarks recently made by German army officers.

The trouble started at the conclusion of the classes of the evening continuation school when the pupils met and denounced eight army officers. Troops were summoned to disperse the meeting and everybody who failed to "move on" promptly was arrested.

The townspeople, excited by the repressive measures of the militia gathered in the principal square. Soon afterwards an officer with a party of 50 soldiers appeared on the scene. The officer ordered his men to load their rifles and the front ranks to kneel.

When the detachment was ready to fire, the officer stepped forward and commanded the crowd to disperse. The people at once scattered, but the soldiers pursued them at double quick and prodded them with their bayonets and the butts of their rifles. Several citizens were injured.

Detachments of troops with fixed bayonets patrolled the streets throughout the night and remained on duty today.

The mayor criticized the action of the military authorities. Altogether 40 people were arrested. They were confined in the military barracks. It is understood that they are to be tried by a military court.

Disorder continued in various parts of the town throughout the morning.

COPS TO KEEP INDIANAPOLIS CROWDS MOVING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 29.—The police action to prevent disorder incident to the unsettled labor conditions in Indianapolis was ordered by Acting Superintendent of Police Coffin when the police appeared at roll call this morning. The patrolmen were instructed to prevent the congregating of crowds upon the streets and were told that three or more persons would consist of a crowd.

During the last few months many riots have occurred here when large numbers of persons were permitted to gather upon the streets.

The order to the police was issued after a conference between Mayor Harry Wallace and Acting Superintendent Coffin. Mayor Wallace will issue a proclamation today making public the instructions to the patrolmen.

Acting Superintendent Coffin announced today that the police department would be reorganized along military lines. Fifty extra patrolmen were sworn in today, making a total of two extra policemen added to the department this week.

NO JURY YET IN DR. CRAIG'S MURDER TRIAL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 29.—The Craig murder trial was adjourned today until Monday morning with the jury box still unfilled. On three different occasions counsel for the defense announced that they were satisfied with the jury but each time the state found objection to some member of the temporary panel and had him excused by means of the peremptory challenge. Eleven jurors seem to be acceptable to both sides but difficulty is being encountered in obtaining the twelfth man.

Home Building Association Purchases Remaining Interest in City Drug Store Building

The Home Building Association, through its secretary, Charles C. McGruder, Saturday announced the purchase of the remaining third interest in the building at the corner of Third and West Main street, the ground floor of which has been occupied for years by the City drug store.

The consideration of the purchase is not made known. When asked as to the company's plans for the future of the property, Secretary McGruder merely cited the statutes which provide the purpose for which a company of this nature may own property. While Mr. McGruder declares the company has made no plan for the future at present, it is assumed that the transaction was negotiated with a view toward the ultimate construction of a modern bank building on the property.

The lot is approximately twenty-two feet in width, fronting on Third street, and sixty feet in depth fronting on West Main street. It was formerly owned by the Robbins heirs.

Early in August the company acquired the interests of Willis D. Robbins and his two unmarried sisters, and the deal consummated this week gives it the title to the third interest of Mrs. Samuel Hunter, widow of the late Judge Hunter, and mother of the present Probate judge, Robbins Hunter. The company declines to make known the consideration, but it is admitted that the building now occupied by the Home company, in South Third street, was given in part exchange.

Present lessees of the building have a contract extending over two years. Whether this contract would be renewed if desired was not learned Saturday, which lends to the assumption that a modern business structure will be erected on the property within a short time after expiration of the present leases.

MANY PERSONS ARE INJURED DURING FIRE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 29.—A careful search today among the ruins of the Vanderveen and Stone house building, which burned early this morning, wrecking those places and destroying the homes of several families, revealed the fact that no lives were lost and that the property loss, including insurance, would not be more than $55,000. The origin of the fire was still undetermined.

More than a score of spectators and a dozen firemen were burned or bruised and cut by flying debris when a quantity of dynamite, gunpowder and gasoline exploded in a burning building in the eastern business section of this city early today.

More than 40 men, women and children who occupied rooms in the second story of the burned building, a hardware store, barely escaped with their lives, the firemen succeeding in getting them out of their apartments only a moment before the flash came. The force of the explosion tore the structure to bits and scattered it over an area of four city blocks.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, N. Y., 29.—Public dancing in Chicago's restaurants and cafes is being stopped. Mayor Carter H. Harrison announced today that he will issue no more dance hall licenses to eating houses and that such houses now in existence will not be renewed.

CONFEREES REACHED AN AGREEMENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Conferees reached an official agreement for settlement of the strike at the General Electric company's plant today. A copy of the agreement was sent to the Trades Alliance for approval.

It was generally believed that the labor troubles would be settled before nightfall, and as a result, the city took on a holiday appearance. The workers who received a week's pay yesterday crowded the stores and snopped freely.

The tentative settlement agreed upon between Mayor Lunn, representative of the company, and a labor committee was that the strikers should return to work on part time, and that their leaders, Frank Dumas and Miss Mabel Leslie, would be reinstated unless it could be proved that their work was poor.

WOULD DISSOLVE THE AMERICAN CAN COMPANY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Baltimore, Nov. 29.—Suit was filed here today in the United States district court to dissolve the American Can company, the so-called tin can trust, which the department of justice alleges controls a large percentage of the business in the United States in tin cans, containers and packages of tin. The American Sheet & Tin Plate company was made a defendant because of an agreement it is alleged to have with the tin company to sell tin cans at a preferential rate.

Army Wins From Navy in Game at The Polo Grounds.

42,000 SPECTATORS PRESENT ON THE NEW YORK FIELD

City Full of Gold Lace and Thousands of Enthusiasts Display the Rival Colors—Cadets and Middies from West Point and Annapolis March Upon the Battlefield to the Accompaniment of Music by the Rival Bands.

New York, Nov. 29.—The Army won today's game by the score of, Army, 22; Navy, 9.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Nov. 29.—Under skies that momentarily threatened rain, a gala crowd of 40,000, among them the president of the United States, surged toward Upper Manhattan today for the annual football game between the Army and Navy. Played this year for the first time at the Polo grounds, New York, it was estimated that spectators of the contest would total more than 42,000—a greater number than ever witnessed a world's series baseball contest.

There was no early jam at the gates, however, for those who held tickets had obtained them far in advance. But hotel corridors long before the game were alive with pretty girls and representatives of the Army and Navy and official Washington. President Wilson, after bidding goodby to the pier to his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, who departed for Europe, went to the game by automobile.

The lineup of outstanding features which attend the unusual excitement of staging the Army and Navy football game in New York City today for the first time in the history of football rivalry between the two service schools were epitomized as follows:

Weather—rain. Forecast officially, in amendment to yesterday's assurances that the day would be only partly cloudy. Some rain fell during the night but not enough to affect the field, which was protected with a straw covering, and only a downpour at the last moment could make playing conditions altogether intolerable.

The scene—the New York National League baseball stadium on the meadow of the Polo grounds, under the shadow of Coogan's cliff, near the upper extremity of Manhattan Island, where the modern horse shoe grandstand of steel and concrete and the ordinary baseball bleachers were reinforced by temporary stands almost completely enclosing the gridiron.

The crowds—provisions made for 42,000 spectators with nearly every ticket sold, the largest crowd that ever witnessed an Army and Navy game.

The tickets—regularly priced at $3 each, tickets sold yesterday as high as $25 apiece, but speculators who had any left this morning were letting them so as low as $10 apiece, or $15 for two, the slump being due in great part to the threatening rain.

Distinguished box holders—the president of the United States, whose interest in the game brought him from Washington last night along with the hundreds of other enthusiasts in administrative circles and Army and Navy branches of the government, including almost all of the generals and admirals in the service and a host of pretty maids and matrons from the capital. Official Washington, Annapolis, and West Point were all virtually transferred to the metropolis for a football holiday.

The favorites—on paper the midshipmen were credited with marked superiority over the Army cadets this season and history records Navy victories in nine of the seventeen former games between the two schools, with a string of three Navy victories during the past three years. On the morning of the contest, however, a few football critics in New York asserted that the Army eleven had a good chance to win and that in any event a keen battle of football brains and brawn was assured.

The betting—Odds prevailing for a week past at 10 to 7 in favor of the Navy were reported as ruling even higher today with confident Navy men freely offering 2 to 1 at which ratio Army men were eager to indulge.

The Camps—The rival squads with forty in the Army list and thirty-three in the Navy, were quartered at large hotels within gunning distance of each other in the theatre district, almost every man reported and seeming in perfect physical condition.

Color scheme—The city was full of gold lace, more of it than can be remembered at any event since the Dewey naval parade. The rival colors, the Navy Blue and Gold, and the Army Black, Gold and Gray, were also displayed by the thousands of wives and daughters and sweethearts in the football crowd.

Songs and cheers—A number of new songs set to popular refrain and several original service yells were prepared for use for the first time today to the accompaniment of the rival bands. The Navy musicians had the honor of making the first entrance to the grounds, through their being victors in the last game. They afford a gorgeous picture in their blue coats with lurid redlined caps, with eight companies of cadets arranged according to their size to follow with their many flags.

The West Point corps of about 600 in traditional gray uniforms was to follow, with parade of the two corps around the field.

Some of the characteristic bits of song arranged for today:

Navy—
"Fare Away, Black and Gold and Gray."

Change your course, just roll away.

British Will Co-operate With United States in Mexican Controversy

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Nov. 29.—Although Rear Admiral Cradock, commanding the British ships in Mexican waters ranks Rear Admiral Fletcher by virtue of seniority, the British commander has notified the American admiral that he wishes to subordinate himself in co-operating with the United States forces.

This fresh evidence of friendly feeling and hearty co-operation between the two governments was received here today with manifest gratification. Any developments in the Mexican situation seemed to be moving under the surface, there appeared to be no change in the diplomatic situation and no indication that the American government was deviating from its attitude of careful watching and patient waiting for the elimination of Huerta.

All officials in immediate charge of the situation were away from the capital. President Wilson and Secretaries Garrison and Daniels were in New York to attend the Army-Navy football game. Secretary Bryan was speaking in Pottstown, Pa.

Rear Admiral Cradock has been advised by Rear Admiral Fletcher of the extent of the plans adopted by the American commander to safeguard British as well as American interests at Tampico and at Tuxpan. The action of the British admiral in sailing away from Tampico is taken to indicate that he was satisfied with those plans.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Nov. 29.—The Paris Temps today prints a vigorous editorial upon the "anarchy in Mexico." The newspaper in concluding the article says:

"In the presence of death, destruction and ruin, the moment appears to have been reached when humanity and general interest commands all powers to take concerted action with the United States to compel all parties in Mexico to lay down their arms and bring an end to the intolerable situation."

Do Your Shopping Early

Less than four weeks remain for your Christmas shopping.

That's a mighty short period of time when one stops to think of the amount of merchandise to be moved by Newark merchants in that length of time.

Today the holiday goods are fresh. The assortments are unbroken. The clerks are not tired out by the Christmas rush. You are not exasperated with the thought that there are a lot of presents to be bought and only a few hours left in which to make your purchases. It is logical, therefore, that TODAY is the proper time to do that Christmas shopping. You get better attention from the sales people, not because they wish to slight you the week before Christmas but simply because at that time they will be worn and fagged by the mad rush for the counters, that you will be at your wits end from the same cause.

Newark merchants, by wise buying, have placed before the holiday shopper splendid stocks of goods suitable for presents for anyone. These stocks come from every clime. If you take advantage of the opportunities offered to early shoppers, you get the best these stocks have to offer, which is good enough for anyone and everyone.

The sooner you make your purchases the better you will be suited.

The earlier in the day you shop, the better service you will get.

Only 19 more shopping days until Christmas.

RETRACTION OF REFLECTION UPON STEGERS

At the top of the fifth column, tenth page of the Newark, Ohio, Advocate of Saturday, November 16, 1912, appeared the following advertisement which was accepted in the regular course of business and was published in good faith and was paid for by Mr. A. L. Rawlins, music dealer. Subsequent developments resulting from an investigation by The Advocate in Newark, Chicago and elsewhere lead The Advocate to republish the advertisement herewith and to retract the statements contained therein. This action is voluntary upon the part of this newspaper and is done in justice to the Steger Piano Manufacturing Company of Chicago and without solicitation upon the part of the said Steger company. Under the caption "Piano Dealers are Sentenced to Jail" the advertisement read as follows:

About one year ago an advertisement appeared in a Chicago paper, offering for the solution of a simple "piano puzzle" a diamond ring and a check. Newark people are familiar with this kind of advertising. Mrs. Jennie Rosenthal "solved" the puzzle and spent her last $7 in buying a ticket to Chicago, so that she might receive the diamond ring and check. Of course, Mrs. Rosenthal got no ring and no check of any value. She told her story and her desire for the ring and check got to the attention of the authorities. The result was the arrest of S. E. Moist, president of the S. E. Moist Piano Company; John V. Steger, wealthy head of the Steger & Sons Piano Manufacturing Company, and William F. Grosskopf, head salesman of the concern. The cases have gone through the courts and the result has just been announced. Each of the three piano men defendants was sentenced to serve 7 days in jail and to pay a fine of $50 each.

Christ G. Steger, treasurer of the Steger concern, was sentenced to serve 5 days in jail and to pay a fine of $50, while Walter C. Newman, an agent of the Steger concern, was sentenced to three days in jail. The cases may be appealed to the United States supreme court.

Anybody with good common sense knows that no piano can afford to give a piano, a diamond, or anything of real value for the solution of a puzzle that any child can solve, yet there are dealers who make alluring offers of valuable prizes and "checks" and what not for solution of simple puzzles. This sort of advertising is a fake, pure and simple. I have never resorted to this practice, but believe in giving the best values at the lowest prices possible. I have the standard makes—Knabe Brothers Co., Smith & Nixon, the Rawlins, Melville Clark and others, and sell these high grade pianos for cash or on easy payments. It pays to buy a good piano and the inferior makes and to keep away from all fake puzzle schemes or contests.

A. L. RAWLINS,
Piano Dealer,
North Park Place, Newark, O.
The Advocate accepted and printed the foregoing advertisement without malice towards the Steger Piano Company and without acquaintance with or personal knowledge of the members of said piano company. The advertisement referred to was based upon a dispatch printed in the Musical Age but The Advocate's investigation shows that the advertisement was in error and that John V. Steger and Christ G. Steger were not sentenced to jail as charged. The Advocate was innocent of any intention of doing injury to John V. Steger and Christ G. Steger as individuals or to the firm of Steger & Sons, piano manufacturers and it is due them now that the facts are known to the readers of this newspaper and it is the desire of The Advocate to give greater prominence and wider publicity to this statement than was given to the erroneous advertisement of Nov. 16, 1912.

The Advocate has always endeavored to treat every man fairly and to cast no unjust reflection upon anyone. As evidence of this policy the Advocate points with pride to the fact that for more than 25 years no actionable complaint was ever been made against this newspaper.

New Officers of the Board of Trade

ROBERT W. SMITH
President.

WILLIAM F. WULPHOOP
Secretary.

WILLIAM C. CHRISTIAN
Treasurer.

Smith and Wulphoop Head the Newark Board of Trade; Committees are Appointed

William F. Wulphoop, whose term as auditor ended Dec. 31, was Friday night elected secretary of the Newark Board of Trade and will take up the duties of the office at the beginning of the new year.

Mr. Wulphoop succeeds Col. William C. Wells who has been secretary of the body for several years. Col. Wells has given splendid service in the office and during his term a number of valuable industries have been added to the already long list of substantial manufacturers in Newark.

The election of the officers took place at a meeting of the 15 members of the board of managers, elected at a meeting held in the High School Auditorium Nov. 18. The meeting was held in the office of the board of trade on the tenth floor of the trust building. The officers elected are:

President, Robert W. Smith.
Vice President, A. R. Lindorf.
Secretary, William F. Wulphoop.
Treasurer, William C. Christian.

The new president, Mr. Smith, is proprietor of the pharmacy at Second and South Park opposite the postoffice and is president of the Newark Telephone Company. He is prominent in local lodge circles and is eminently qualified for the new office to which he has been elected.

Vice President A. R. Lindorf is at the head of the local firm of Meyer & Lindorf, dry goods merchants, in Second street next to the postoffice. W. C. Christian is assistant treasurer and auditor of the Newark Trust Company and was former director of public service. He is also a newly elected member of the school board.

The new secretary, Mr. Wulphoop, at present city auditor, is one of the prominent young business men of the city who has rendered his home city much valuable service in the capacity of auditor. He is absolutely thorough in everything he takes up, is conscientious in the discharge of his duties and will make a valuable officer in Newark's commercial organization. He is a native of Newark and has filled a number of important political positions at different times.

The nominating committee in presenting the names of several candidates for the office of the secretary selected Mr. Wulphoop because of his competence to fill the office. Mr. Wulphoop did not seek the position and solicited no support of any of the directors. Therefore, his election is an indication of the high esteem in which he is held by his fellow business men in Newark.

The following committees were appointed to handle the business in the various departments during the coming year:

Membership—Fred Sites, F. M. B. Whittle, A. B. Schaeffer, C. L. Florio, Dr. J. E. H. Stedem, A. Nelson Dadd and L. F. Carr.
Finance—C. C. Metz, F. S. Clement and Harry Scott.
Advertising—C. H. Spencer, F. S. Neighbor, Julius Juch, S. Otis Riggs and E. S. Miller.

Ways and Means—O. C. Parrill, W. S. Weinst, Carl Norpell, F. L. Higgs, J. W. Rutledge, Ed. Kibler, Jr., and C. L. V. Holtz.

Conventions—H. P. Scott, A. G. Walters, C. E. McDaniel, F. G. Warden, A. L. Thoman, R. O. Martin and Rev. Don D. Tullis.

Subscription—W. H. Smith, E. C. Wright, W. L. Prout, Emmet Baugher, Geo. B. Sprague, W. W. Gard, Fred C. Evans, Jas. K. Dewey, C. L. V. Holtz and W. C. Metz.

The board passed a resolution that all its sessions be fully recorded in the press and that ever publicity be given its actions.

The board adjourned after considerable discussion touching on the plan of work and will meet again next Friday evening, when a full official force being in office and the members of the board all in town, the active work will be pushed under the management of Mr. Wakefield.

CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN HELD UP BY FOOTPADS

The police department will make an inquiry into the story told by Harry A. Long, thirty, South Morris street, in which he claims he was held up and robbed near First and Canal streets about 9:30 o'clock Friday night by a tall man with a moustache. Long claimed the robber got $14.50, all that remained of his pay check which he had cashed a few hours before.

There are several features to the case which Captain Swank claims warrants him in the belief that Long is "stalling" and before the "tall man" is arrested an investigation will be made.

Captain Swank and Headquarters Officer Moore got the man from the front porch of James Fitzsimmons' home just east of Second street on Canal. Mrs. Fitzsimmons had started to the restaurant to accompany her husband home, when she heard moaning which attracted her to the prostrate form of Long lying just north of the Scheidler foundry building. He was assisted to the porch of the Fitzsimmons home where he was revived, and a telephone message sent to police headquarters.

Long was taken to headquarters where he was questioned for an hour, while waiting for a physician to make an examination of Long's injury. Dr. Knauss made a careful examination of the back of the head where Long claims to have been struck. He could find no evidence of a blow heavy enough to produce semi-consciousness.

Long was ordered to appear at headquarters for another examination in a day or two.

On Second Thought

The clerk who is fired by interest in the daily job is seldom fired by the boss.

The man who never changes his mind seldom has any mind to change. Speaking of change better send in a little of it to the Advocate for the Newark Christmas tree.

Do you believe in cheer? A good way to prove it will be to send in a little contribution for Newark's Christmas tree. The Advocate will give you a receipt. George Vail has nothing on us.

A small woman's idea of adventure is to go to a city and be shaved by a woman barber.

Briefly defined, a "family" horse is one with a "day window."

Next to marrying money, stealing money is the hardest way to earn it.

There are two sides to every story and, as a rule, neither of them agree with the facts in the case.

Every woman seeks to create the impression that she would do something terrible should a man strike her. As a matter of fact, what is there a woman could do in a case of that kind?

Every young man knows enough poetry to recite a little to the girl with whom he is in love.

A man has the advantage of a woman in the respect that it is possible for him to be popular with other members of his sex.

Some of the men who claim to have been sent to save the world inspire the feeling that its ultimate destruction would be preferable.

UTICA REVIVAL
WILL CONTINUE
UNTIL DEC. 14

(Special to The Advocate.)
Utica, O., Nov. 29.—The union revival meetings in Utica continue to increase in interest and results. An addition was built on the tabernacle yesterday to accommodate the crowds who seek admittance.

Many have come out and taken their stand for God. Evangelist Hicks is a forceful speaker and portrays the indecency of sin in such a way that Christians can not help but be stirred to action and sinners come repentant to the front seats. The chorus leader, O. A. Cheek, has his choir of about 150 voices well in hand and is winning his way into the hearts of the people. He also has a large chorus of children, whose singing is a delight to all. Monday night they occupied the platform and were frequently cheered.

Rev. Homer Alexander, assistant to Mr. Hicks, preached Monday night. He is also a strong speaker and is an effective personal worker. Mr. Rose, the tabernacle man, is doing splendid work as a soul winner, and is a whole-hearted young man.

The revival will continue until December 14.

SUFFRAGE

The Federal Convention of the National League of Women Suffragists, held in Washington, D. C., last week, however, is one that arises at each annual convention and therefore will not command the attention given to the finance amendment. Washington suffragists are planning a campaign to retain the headquarters.

The preliminary work of the convention will be done tomorrow by the executive committee, which will examine the credentials of the delegates. Its report will be presented Monday. National officers do not anticipate any difficulties in the seating of the delegates. The national board also will hold its annual meeting tomorrow and the executive committee will meet at night.

A great mass meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at which Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the national association, will preside. Among the speakers will be Miss Jane Adams, of Chicago, and Senator Helen Ring Robinson, of Denver, member of the Colorado senate. At night a reunion of the delegates will be held at a local hotel.

Monday a welcoming address to the delegates will be delivered by Mrs. Numa E. Allender, president of the state society of the District of Columbia. Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the Congressional Committee of the national association, also will welcome the delegates. A response will be made by Mrs. Solon Jacobs, president of the Alabama Suffrage association. The remainder of the afternoon session will be taken up with reports of the officers and departments.

The great Illinois celebration will be held that evening and many prominent Illinois women will take part. Among them will be the women who lead the actual fight for the suffrage amendment in that state. The first speaker will be Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the Illinois Suffrage association. She will be followed by Mrs. Sherman K. Booth, chairman of the legislative committee; Mrs. Katharine Waugh McCullough, Mrs. Mollie McCormick, Mrs. Ella S. Stewart and Mrs. Antoinette Funk.

Miss Lucy Barnes, vice-chairman of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage, will discuss the National Suffrage amendment. She will deal with the efforts of the union to further the passage by congress of the equal suffrage amendment to the federal constitution. Dr. Shaw, the president, will close the evening's meeting with her annual address.

Consideration of the new constitution and a conference on methods for furthering the suffrage movement will come up Tuesday. That evening the men's league will hold a meeting presided over by James Laidlaw, president of the league. Among the speakers will be Senators Bristow, of Kansas; Thomas, of Colorado, and Owen, of Oklahoma. Representatives Murdock of Kansas, and J. W. Bryan, of Washington, and former Mayor Geo. Creal, of Denver.

The various state organizations will make their annual reports Wednesday. They will detail their progress in furthering the movement. In various games and dining plans will be made for the future. The various organizations of new business will enter after which another conference on methods will be held, led by Miss Helen Hacker, of Lawrence, Kansas.

On Wednesday night Federal Judge John W. Mack will discuss "Women and Children in the Courts." Judge Mack was formerly a judge of the Supreme Court of Illinois. Judge Harry Olson, of the Chicago Police Department, will discuss "The Woman's Cause." Judge Olson is a prominent member of the New York City and Miss Katharine Waugh McCullough, of the National Y. W. Y. reformatory, also will speak.

Both the morning and afternoon sessions of Thursday will be devoted to the constitution. At 10 o'clock the constitution will be adopted. The constitution will be adopted by the delegates. The constitution will be adopted by the delegates. The constitution will be adopted by the delegates.

MOVIES WILL GIVE LIBRARY BENEFIT DAYS

Newark's moving picture trio, Messrs. Bader, Thomas and Gallagher proprietors respectively of the Grand and Lyric theatres, will each give a benefit day for the Newark Public Library. The needs of the library and the requests for the same of the library have been taken a step and more comprehensive supply of literature along the above mentioned lines has prompted these gentlemen to use this means of supplying this demand. So if the good people of Newark will respond, as they usually do, to such calls, and will watch for the announcement of the days in the columns of the local papers, they have so kindly donated space, the efforts of these gentlemen will meet with that success that the matter warrants. Tuesday, December 2 at the Lyric, and Wednesday, December 3 at the Grand, are the days of the Library Benefit Days. Exceptionally fine program. All seats low.

TRINITY CHURCH CHOIR TO SING CANTATA

The choir of Trinity church will sing on Sunday afternoon, the beautiful cantata, "The Daughter of Jacob." The composer of this work is Sir John Stainer, who was the famous organist of St. Paul's Cathedral, London. The theme is the story of Jacob, the Roman centurion, to Christ, seeking His aid in the healing of his daughter. It has some beautiful recitatives, solos, duets and choruses.

This service will begin promptly at 4:30 and will take the place of the regular 5 o'clock vespers service. The public is cordially invited.

Big I.

How pleasant 'tis to meet the gent who does not talk of things he's doing, whose thoughts are not forever bent on schemes that he may be pursuing. I always advise my neighbor Jinks, who, with the lung power of a steam boiler, talks of himself all day, and thinks that of the world he is the center. What Jinks has done, what Jinks will do, is all of which the man will blather; of that he'll talk the long day through, until his lungs are in a lather. And so he makes the people tired, and when he dies they'll murmur sadly: It is a thing we've long desired for daily: how pleasant 'tis to meet the sport who talks of music, art, the drama; whose knowledge runs from camp to court to books by some Tibetan lama. Who talks of Ibsen, and of Shaw, interprets Robert Browning clearly, distributes wisdom from his jaw, and lets the "I" alone severely. There are so many bores on earth they make us madder things humorous: refreshing men we greet with mirth and deck their saintly brows with laurel.

WANTS LICENSE FOR A SALOON AT HANOVER

Daniel Coffman, who formerly conducted a saloon at West Main and Union streets, Saturday morning filed an application with the county licensing commission for license privilege in Hanover village. Thereby hangs a problem for the license commissioners, since they have been informed that several residents of that village declare their town is dry, under an ordinance of the village council in 1888. The state license board recently declared otherwise.

The proposition will be fully investigated, said members of the commission. Saturday, Lee Beatty, former East Newark saloonist, also is an applicant for a license in Hanover village.

The commission declared Saturday licenses will not be granted or refused until sufficient time has elapsed for all applications to be in the hands of the commission.

Readers' View Point

Newark Christmas Tree.
In reading an account of the proposed Christmas tree to be erected in the public square, it seemed to me that the true purpose of a municipal tree has been misunderstood.

The great evergreen which stood in Madison Square, New York, last year, from Christmas eve until New Year's, was the embodiment of quite another idea.

This tree was undecorated save for the hundreds of electric lights hidden in its branches, the white star which crowned it and the fall of snow which came just at the right moment. No gifts were heaped at its foot nor suspended from its branches, but every evening groups of singers, sometimes adults, sometimes children, gathered on a pine-sheltered platform near the tree and sang the Christmas hymns and carols, embodying the religious experience of many peoples. At evening as soon as the lights began to twinkle in the tree, the crowds would gather—youth and old, rich and poor, happy and unhappy—and soon hundreds of voices would take up the song. Elbow to elbow in the throng, stood men and women from every walk in life. If, under the influence of the spiritual idea for which the tree stood, material gift-giving resulted, it was spontaneous and anonymous.

Read the account of the Madison Square tree in the December number of the Ladies' Home Journal. Let us too have the hymns and carols sung, with the choirs of the different churches to lead, perhaps. By all means, reach the needy children through the usual charitable channels, but DON'T distribute gifts from the tree. Let us keep our tree free from the material misinterpretation of Christmas—that the spirit of the Eternal, whose symbol it is, may teach us the real meaning of Christmas. A READER.

Church Supper.
I am glad this subject is up for discussion. To give a supper fully worth 50 cents for a 25 cent piece and to say you can make money is too silly to discuss. Some one must pay the difference. The Bible says to come with an offering, and a 50 cent supper for 25 cents is surely no offering. But is it necessary to have suppers to raise money for churches and charity? I think not. If one about in a strict business way, the funds can be raised without so much hard work for the ladies. I have even tried and with success. In a city where I once resided an M. E. church was indebted some $25,000. The pastor wanted this debt liquidated, of course. A committee was named of which a young business man was chairman. He procured a list of the members and they started out. The first layman they called on received them kindly, and at once said: "Put me down for $100." They thanked him for same, but intimated that they had expected more. He said he would have given more but that next week the Aid society would begin giving weekly suppers. His wife would donate food, and that the family of six would have to purchase their suppers. The chairman replied that there would be no suppers this time. That none of the activities of the church, Aid Society, Sunday school, Brotherhood, etc., would be asked to contribute. Layman then said: "Put me down for $200." The first week they secured $21,000, and second week paid off the entire debt. Newark churches could do as well.

School Will Raise Physical Standard

By Dr. LOUIS DUFESTEL, Medical Inspector of Paris Schools

It is my belief that here in the American crucible a startlingly fine metal is in process of formation. Several generations may yet pass before it takes a form which may be considered even likely to be PERMANENT, but enough has already been evidenced to convince thinkers in all countries that ITS WORTH IS SURE.

NOTHING COULD BE MORE IMPORTANT TO RIGHT RACIAL DEVELOPMENT THAN GENERAL ATTENTION TO SCHOOL HYGIENE. ALL SCHOOLS SHOULD DO SOMETHING MORE THAN TRAIN THE MIND.

In these days we all recognize the fact that the superiority of mind over body does not extend far enough to permit a fine mind to achieve its best development in a sickly and imperfect body.

That some of our best intellects have been housed in weak, even in imperfect, bodies DOES NOT PROVE THE CONTRARY. It only indicates that MIND IS MIGHTY AND MAY WIN GREAT VICTORIES and makes us wonder what those supreme intellects might not have accomplished had their vigor and genius been supplemented by bodily strength and vitality.

Extra Power

Every well designed machine has a power, a capacity beyond its ordinary requirements.

This extra power may never actually be used, yet the possessor of the machine is thereby given a confidence in the ability of the machine to meet all conditions, whereas if the machine were always working up to its limit, the slightest overload would put it out of commission.

This same principle applies to your finances.

Spend all of your income, have no extra margin, no savings account for emergencies, and the least unlooked for demand puts you in financial embarrassment, may even deeply humiliate you.

Have a savings account here and accumulate a surplus fund to give you extra power at any time when your ordinary financial plans may go wrong.

With Ohio Club Women

Conducted by Mrs. Charles S. Rockhill, Chairman of the Publicity Department of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs

Rural Schools for Community Centers.

"Back to the soil" seems to be the new slogan and country life seems destined to come into its own. The trend for years was from country to city, but with better roads, automobiles and interurban trains, this has changed. Accessibility has made possible green fields and woodland spaces and all the charm and quiet of the country home, while keeping in touch with business in the city. This is true however—more especially with the city dweller who has tired of the city and longs for the charm of the country, coupled with the city's conveniences.

But living conditions in remote rural districts are yet far from being what they should be, and their betterment is the subject of such serious discussion by sociologists and economists.

Lack of social life and discontent, born of the monotony of the usual rural home, will continue to drive boys and girls from the farms to the city unless life in the farming districts can be made more comfortable and enjoyable.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs is generally interested in the endeavor to secure the use of the school houses in rural districts for establishing School Social Centers. In Ohio the organization of the farm women's clubs was largely promoted by the encouragement and co-operation of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs and they expect to work in conjunction with the Farm Women's organization to secure better roads—the use of the school houses and the establishing of community centers, and in the great work of making the country side a better.

happier and more intellectual place in which to live.

The Winston-Salem Plan of Training for Citizenship.

Training boys for the obligations and responsibilities of citizenship has been undertaken in Winston-Salem, N. C., along rather broad and unique lines. After nearly a year's successful operation the Winston-Salem plan is worthy of careful consideration, and possibly of imitation. The principal characteristics of this plan are, first, co-operation between the public schools and the local board of trade; second, the establishment of a department of government and economics in the city high school; and third, the formation of a boys' department, or a "Juvenile Club," as it is called, of the board of trade.

Work in the High School.

At the beginning of the 1912-13 school year, Supt. R. E. Batham, of the city schools, provided as a part of the high school curriculum, a course in government and economics open to the senior students, and placed the new department under the direction of the secretary of the board of trade, who, with the approval of the board, had volunteered his services. Under this department, the students are taught the elements of government, special attention being given to analysis and comparison of the city, county, State and Federal governments. During the term ending with the Christmas holidays, mock elections were held, and the class was organized as city council, State general assembly and as the Congress of the United States.

Immediately after Christmas a series of lectures treating of the fundamental principles of economics were arranged, and the attention of the students directed to the important industrial, commercial, and agricultural problems of this country, particularly the problems of the Southern States.

The Juvenile Club. Membership in the Juvenile club is not limited to high school boys, for it was thought best to open to all interested boys of the city a way to become identified with constructive and active civic work. To become a member of the club, however, the boy must be at least 14 years of age and under 21 years old. Another condition of membership is that the boy must subscribe to and recite from memory before the secretary of the board of trade the ancient Athenian oath, pledging himself to perform faithfully his civic obligations. This pledge is as follows:

"We will never bring disgrace to this our city by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city, both alone and with many. We will reverence and obey the city's laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in those above us who are prone to annul or to set them at naught. We will strive unceasingly to quicken the public sense of civic duty. Thus, in all these ways, we will transmit this city not less, but greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

A membership register is kept in which the boys sign their names after subscribing to and reciting this oath.

The boys have the privilege of attending all regular meetings of the board of trade, with the right to take part in debates, but without any voting power. They are assigned committee work, and special meetings are held for them twice a month or more frequent if the work demands it. Members of the Juvenile club pay no fees.

The club has a membership of about 50 boys, the first member being enrolled October 14, 1912.

Every effort is made to properly train these boys for the duties of citizenship, to create in them respect for honest and efficient public service, and to actively interest them in the work of making Winston-Salem a better, greater, and more beautiful city in which to live.

What Women are Doing in Chicago.

Since women are enfranchised in Illinois the following concrete examples show what the Chicago women have accomplished:

First—Ten policemen to care for the girls and women prisoners.

Second—A woman judge on the juvenile court bench. In the presence of a relative of the offender's, a probation officer and a nurse, this woman gets the story from the girl or woman prisoner. There is no curious crowd to hear the proceedings.

Third—Woman bailiff.

Fourth—Commission on the Garbage Question. Two of the commission are women.

Fifth—The retention of Mrs. Ella Young as head of the school board, with a board the majority of whom will co-operate with her in her work.

History Repeats Itself.

History repeats itself. Harper's Weekly brings to light the fact that our pure food law labels are old and antique. In 900 B. C. the ancient Hebrews made the wholesale grocers and wine dealers of their day put such seals and labels on their wine and oil jars. They stated when the wine was deposited in the cellars and where the wine came from. On the oil jars the label read "A Jar of Pure Oil," with the name of the district producing it. Seventy-five of these records are found. They show that even in the days of King Ahab the government protected the stomachs of its citizens.

Club Notes.

The Sappho club of Mansfield, O., while cooperating with the City Federation in all their civic and social welfare work, also gives financial aid to the settlement work of the city.

The Julia Ward Howe club of Newtown, gave seventy-five volumes to the new library of Milford.

An aspiration is a joy for ever, a possession as solid as a landed estate, a fortune which we can never exhaust, and which gives us year by year a revenue of pleasurable activity. To have many of these is to be spiritually rich.—R. L. Stevenson.

The presidents of Wellesley, Mt. Holyoke and Bryn Mawr all favor equal suffrage.

"To resist with success the frigidities of old age, one must combine the body, the mind and the heart, to keep these in parallel vigor, and must exercise, study and love."—Madame de Staël.

Society

The following relatives and friends spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes at their home on Lover's Lane: Mr. and Mrs. Byron Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hughes, Miss Rosa Shaw of Cleveland, Mrs. Charles Forgrave and four children, Revs. Alice, Velma and Lester, Messrs. John Van Allen, James and William Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith entertained a family party with a Thanksgiving dinner at their pleasant country home near Linnville. The day also celebrated the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who received many beautiful gifts. The dining room was decorated with cut flowers and autumn leaves which were in perfect harmony with the well filled table.

The following were seated and partook of the bountiful repast: Mrs. Olive Benson, Mrs. Sarah Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Benson and children Edith and Evalyn, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fulk and daughter Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sayre and son Donovan of Dayton, Misses Alice and Dona Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benson, Miss Ora Lawrence of Columbus, Mr. Orval Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith.

The afternoon was spent in social chat and music. In the evening the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs.

Smith many more years of happy wedded life.

Many beautiful cut flowers were used in the decorations at the Latimer home in Hudson avenue on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. J. P. Latimer, her two daughters, Mrs. Joseph S. Elliott and Miss Bertha Latimer entertained with a reception.

The hours were from two to six, and the three hostesses were alone in the receiving line in greeting the guests. The parlors were beautifully arranged with chrysanthemums and carnations in a riot of coloring. Aiding in the rooms were Mrs. A. B. Schauweker, Mrs. John Braddock, Mrs. Charles O'Bannon, Mrs. Frank Elliott. In the dining room the color effect was yellow, this shade featuring the roses which formed the centerpiece, and the canopies of the candles and the confections. CORN BOYS MEET AND EFFECT AN ORGANIZATION

Licking county corn boys gathered in the assembly room of the Newark Post building Saturday afternoon and elected Homer Orr chairman and Frank Sharr secretary of their organization. While members of the Licking County Corn Improvement society met themselves in preparation of a premium list for the county corn show, the date for which has been set as the second week of January.

Several business men were called into the meeting to assist the society in determining upon a place for holding the exhibition. While no definite decision had been reached up to a late hour, the Arcade seemed to be generally favored as the proper place for the display.

The society planned to arrange and display of the boys' corn to Washington. The party leaves here Monday night at 7 o'clock over the Pennsylvania lines.

Prominent in the working committee Saturday was Arthur Powell, the Licking county farmer whose corn won the first award at the state fair, scoring 100 points out of 100 or just 1-2 better than any county in the state. Mr. Powell provided the collection of 51 varieties of Licking county grown corn, now on display in the Trust company's windows, and which represents the product of approximately sixty Licking county corn growers.

RESINOL WILL STOP THAT ITCH

Brings Instant Relief and Quickly Clears Away Skin Eruptions.

No matter how long you have been tormented and disfigured by itching, burning, raw or scaly skin humors, just put a little of that soothing, anesthetic Resinol Ointment on the sores and the suffering stops right there! Itching begins that very minute, and your skin gets well so quickly you feel ashamed of the misery you threw away as useless, today's treatments.

Wherever drugs are sold, you can be just as sure of finding Resinol Ointment as you can of a toothbrush. This is because doctors have prescribed it so regularly for the last eighteen years that every druggist knows he must keep it constantly in stock. It comes in opal jars, for fifty cents and one dollar, or you can try it at our expense. Resinol Ointment is most effective for healing sores, boils, wounds and piles. Write today to Dept. 5-M, Resinol, Baltimore, Md., for a sample of Resinol Ointment and a miniature cake of Resinol Soap.

CRUST ON HEAD ITCHED AND BURNED

So Would Wake Up Nights and Cry. Head Bare in Spots. Cured Entirely in Six Weeks by Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment.

Rockford, Ia. — "My little girl had a hard crust form on her head. Her head had a rash on it and it itched and burned so she would wake up nights and cry. Then it formed into sores and then it turned into a dry crust, and when I combed her hair, great cracks would come out. Her head was bare of hair in spots.
"Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they cured her entirely in six weeks and her hair came in lovely. At that time she was about ten years old and now she is twenty-six and has never had any more trouble." (Signed) Mrs. H. J. Wadley, Dec. 14, 1912.

PAINFUL ITCHING AND BURNING

263 Jackson St., Milwaukee, Wis. — "My trouble began with small speckles on my chest, arms and legs. Later it took the form of little blisters which caused it painful itching and burning. In the day I was tormented by the itching which irritated the eruption and in the night I lost rest from the itching. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment finding relief in the first day of treatment. In one week I was well." (Signed) Joseph Cascone, Nov. 30, 1912.
For treating poor complexion, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have been the world's favorite for more than a generation. Sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card, "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

RESOLUTION.
In memoriam of Luella Wilson, who departed this life Saturday, November 8, 1915.
Through the dispensation of Divine Providence the white winged messenger has invaded our Mystic Circle and claimed one of our golden links for His own. Our beloved sister, Luella Wilson, who was ever loyal to the order she loved so well, and as she walked in the sunshine or shadow of life she always enjoyed the sweet companionship of her sisters. Therefore be it
Resolved, That in the death of Sister Wilson the order has lost one of its most faithful members, as she has ceased her labors and been called to join that great throng above, where parting are no more. And that in appreciation of her noble work the charter of Laura Midget Lodge, 144, be draped in mourning for 30 days. Therefore be it
Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband and children and to the sorrowing parents, brothers and sisters, and commend them to Him, who doeth all things well and may they bow their heads submissively and say, Thy will be done. Further
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of our deceased sister, also a copy be spread upon the minutes, that those hereafter may know in what loving remembrance we held this esteemed sister.

BLUE AND DISCOURAGED
Mrs. Hamilton Tells How She Finally Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Warren, Ind. — "I was bothered terribly with female weakness. I had pains and was not regular, my head ached all the time, I had bearing down pains and my back hurt me the biggest part of the time. I was dizzy and had weak feelings when I would stoop over, it hurt me to walk any distance and I felt blue and discouraged.
"I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now in good health. If it had not been for that medicine I would have been in my grave a long time ago." — Mrs. ARTIE E. HAMILTON, R.F.D. No. 6, Warren, Ind.

Another Case.
Esmond, R. I. — "I write to tell you how much good your medicine has done me and to let other women know that there is help for them. I suffered with bearing down pains, headache, was irregular and felt blue and depressed all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and commenced to gain in a short time and I am a well woman today. I am on my feet from early morning until late at night running a boarding house and do all my own work. I hope that many suffering women will try your medicine. It makes happier wives and mothers." — Mrs. ANNA HANSEN, Esmond, Rhode Island.

First Things

The first Christian bishop of Toulouse, the ancient French episcopal see, was St. Saturninus, whose festival is celebrated today. It was about the year 215 that Saturninus, by direction of Pope Fabian, went as a missionary to Gaul. He established his see at Toulouse, where practically the entire population was heathen. Saturninus converted hundreds to the Christian faith, and this aroused the animosity of the pagan priests. One day the bishop passed through the capitol, the center of heathen worship, where a vast crowd was collected about an altar on which a bull stood ready for sacrifice. Saturninus was seized and commanded, on pain of death, to bow down before the bull. He bravely refused, and was then tied to the bull, which was driven down the steps of the capitol and through the streets. The mangled body of the bishop was taken up and buried by two of his woman converts.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try This! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and Brush It Through Your Hair, Taking One Strand at a Time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home, is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning, all gray hair disappears and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.
Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Agents, Hall's Drug Store.

FACTS FOR SPORT LOVERS.
It is a curious fact that men who are satisfied with sensational and inaccurate news in other departments will instantly resent the falsifying of sporting news. They "won't stand for it." They want the truth, without fear or favor or bias. Those interested in the sporting events of the world generally agree that The Chicago Record-Herald is a model in this regard. Whether it be baseball, football, boxing, racing, automobile racing, yachting, golf or any other event in the world of athletics or sports, you can always find a good, breezy, accurate report of it in The Record-Herald.
This wide-awake newspaper has a large staff of expert reporters of sports, who devote all their time and skill to this department alone. They have every facility that modern enterprise can devise for the quick and complete reporting of Chicago sporting events, while at the same time the athletic news of the whole country is received by telegraph up to the last moment of going to press.
When the Olympic games were held in Stockholm last summer The Record-Herald's head sporting editor, G. W. Axelsson, crossed the Atlantic and sent full cable reports of the results every day from the grand stand. Its sporting editors surely are live wires. From one to two full pages are devoted to sports every week day, while on Sunday the four pages of "green sheet" offer a feast for "fans" and other lovers of sport.
The Record-Herald has earned its reputation all right. It gets all the sporting news—and gets it straight. [Advertisement]

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLO? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.
Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.
Put your faith — just once — in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

COMPLIMENT IS PAID MR. WHITE
BY A. L. COBURN

Alvin Langdon Coburn's book, "Men of Mark," with 33 remarkable photographs, will be published in America and England in December.

In the November Forum Mr. Coburn tells in an extended article of his experience in photographing Bernard Shaw, Andrew Lang, Frank Brangwyn, George Meredith, John S. Sargent, Theodore Roosevelt, Mark Twain, John Galsworthy, J. M. Barrie, W. D. Howells, Max Weber, Clarence H. White, and others. Speaking of Mr. White, Mr. Coburn pays this handsome compliment to the former Newark young man who is now in New York making a tremendous success in artistic photography. Mr. White teaches at Columbia, conducts a summer school in photography in Maine and finds time to do much work for magazine illustrations. This is what Mr. Coburn says of Mr. White: "There is a gap of nearly two years between the portrait of Max Weber and that of Clarence H. White. Clarence White is one of the most accomplished artists that America has produced, and, as a fellow-worker in the medium of photography, it gives me great pleasure to include him in my volume. I first photographed him in 1903, but the one that I am reproducing was made quite recently. Through his teaching, and the subtlety and refinement of his art, he has gathered about him a group of enthusiasts who are making photography respected wherever their work is shown."

"White has a very unselfish and lovable personality, with which he is able to imbue his work, and which makes his friendship appreciated by those who know him best."

1906—Sam Langford stopped George Gunter in 5 rounds at Haverhill, Mass. This was the fourth and final bout between Gunter and the Boston "tar baby," and the former was convinced that Sam was his master. In 1905 they fought two 12-round contests, Langford winning both on points, as he did the third bout earlier in 1906. Gunter was a clever boxer, and later, in France, he was hailed as a champion. In 1911 Gunter fought a draw with Willie Lewis and defeated Harry Lewis, both bouts taking place in Paris.

1909—Jimmy Gardner defeated Frank Klaus in 12 rounds at Boston.

"CASCARETS" FOR LIVER; BOWELS

No Headache, Biliousness, Upset Stomach, Lazy Liver or Constipated Bowels by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Are you seeking your bowels, liver, and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonic will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

BAPTISTS WERE UP AGAINST A CLASSY TEAM

Granville, Nov. 29.—The Denison football team has returned from its invasion in the East but failed to come back with the spoils of war. Rochester is without a doubt the fastest aggregation of football artists that the Baptists have bucked up against this year. They had as strong a backfield as is found anywhere in the middle west. The work of their captain who played right half was especially commendable. He ripped great holes in the center of the Denison line and after he got started in the first quarter the Baptists were not able to stop him until the middle of the second quarter, after the damage was done.

Captain Black's followers started to walk right through the Flower City aggregation after the kickoff, but after they carried the pigskin to the Yellow 15-yard line they fumbled and seemed to lose their customary nerve the rest of the quarter. During this period of lose play Rochester scored twenty points and won the game.

The Granville combination may attribute its defeat in a large measure to its inability to break up forward passes. The Easterners displayed unexpected strength in this phase of the game. Pass after pass was worked in the first quarter without any interruption whatever on the part of Denison, while the attempts of the Baptists in the open style of play met with absolute failure until the latter part of the same when this style of play was resorted to with the usual cunning.

Captain Black, who has been the mainstay of Denison football squads for the past three years, was the center of attraction of the spectators throughout the contest. He led his team both on the offense and defense. In fact, if it had not been for his wonderful defensive work in the first quarter Denison would undoubtedly have suffered an overwhelming defeat, but by his great work the rushes of the Yellow were checked and his team pulled together in the second quarter. He did not display any of his customary ability as a place kicker for the reason that he did not have time to get his kicks off properly as the Baptist line failed to hold.

It is to be regretted that the team should suffer a temporary slump in such an important game, but not considering the first quarter the Buckeye squad did the better of the argument and there is no use of moping over what has been done so here's hoping the Baptists will even scores when the fast Rochester basketball team comes to Granville this winter.

ARMY

Army, Army, you're a blunder: Take a tin and stand from under: Gangway, let a deep sea wave roll by."

Army:

"Hear those stands all ringing, and those cadets singing: West Point sure is playing, Navy's line is swaying: When the Army Blue will join the Gray with you, and sink that navy team."

Time of game—Start at 2 o'clock, with play divided into the usual four periods of 15 minutes each.

The mascots—The active Navy goat, nearly smothered with gold lace, and the stubborn Army mule in his everyday clothes, were in readiness to provide circus features as sideshows to the gridiron battle. Last year the Navy goat died on the evening of the game, but the loss of the mascot was followed by victory. Superstitious members of the Navy who believe their luck depends on the goat's early death, suggested his sacrifice before the game today but it was decided to let him live.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Polo Grounds, N. Y., Nov. 29.—The van of the thousands to come was passing through the runways in growing throngs at 1 o'clock. The stands filled quickly. From their seats the crowds looked down upon a fresh green field, bare of its heavy blanket of straw. The spot that marked home plate during the baseball season was almost directly beneath the west goal. Fresh sod covered the bare spots of the baseball diamond.

A water laden wind, raw and cutting, swept out of the northeast. The clouds that had rested over the field early in the day lifted and souddled, gray and menacing, before a breeze. A patch of blue was soon lost and the clouds again threatened a downpour.

The Navy won the toss and selected the west goal giving the Army the kickoff.

The president and his party were late. Five minutes after the time set, they arrived and the game began.

The Army kicked off to the Navy's 15-yard line and the ball was run back to the 25-yard line before the Army stopped the heavy Navy back. Failing made the run. The first scrimmage resulted in a five yard gain. Once the next play Brown went around the Army's right side to the Army's 20-yard line. A crash against right tackle failed to gain. The Army was playing desperately but was unable to hold the Navy. Failing plunged through the left side of the Army line to the Army 15-yard line. On the next play McReavey tried the right side of the West Point line, but failed to gain. Harrison made three yards and then Nicholls brought the ball to the Army five yard line. McReavey added two more yards and here the Navy lost the ball on down. Joubert who went in at right halfback (or Hodgson) punted from behind his goal line. It was a poor kick. The Navy got the ball on the Army 20-yard line and carried it back five yards before they were stopped. On a fake formation for field goal, Brown, of the Navy, was brought back and tried to go through the Army's leftside but failed. The Army line was holding fast.

Navy scored field goal.

Score: Navy, 3; Army, 0.

After Nicholls failed to advance the ball Brown stepped back to the 20-yard line and kicked a beautiful goal from placement. This gave the Navy first blood and the Annapolis contingent almost went frantic with joy.

The period ended with the score standing, Navy 3; Army 0.

The Army led the Navy at the end of the first half by the score of 9 to 0. In this half there was much bad football mixed with good football. The Navy was the first to score on a goal from placement by Brown, only to have the score tied by Woodruff of the Army on a goal from placement following a blocked kick. The Navy line appeared to be more powerful than that of the Army and the West Point line could do little with it. After an exchange of punting the Navy finally got the ball in the Army territory again and Brown kicked another goal from placement. West Point frequently tried the forward pass. At first it was a failure but finally the cadets got it working right and on two beautiful throws succeeded in getting the ball over the Navy line for a touchdown. Half a thousand fluttering pennants of gold hid the sombre blue of the Navy stands. A riot of gold and black streamers softened the dull gray of the Army battalions across the field. Not once was the cheering on either stand stilled, save for the brief moments when the ball crossed the goal posts. Then it was the Army's turn to be silent, and once the Navy's but it was only a moment until the bugles were sounding again and the thunder of the cheering let loose. When the Army scored the second time the south stand went delirious again. The great oval in which the field was set was banked high with humanity, reflected no ray of the color in the Army and Navy stands. It was dark with furs and overcoats, in keeping with the low lying clouds that whipped overhead on the wings of a raw northeast wind.

From his seat in the upper grandstand the president buttoned in a heavy overcoat, watched the game. At the end of the half, the crowd surged in front of the Army stand to see him cross to the Navy stand and cheered him along the way.

Beginning the fourth period, the Army tried the Navy's center without gain and then Nichols punted to the Navy's 25-yard line. Navy failed to gain on a play against tackle and on the next play the Navy made a short dash against the left side of the Army line, bringing the ball to West Point's 40-yard line. Nichols punted to the Army's 45-yard line where Hoge caught the ball and rushed Navy's broken field to the Navy 20-yard line. Nichols' kick was a very poor one.

DAVID REESE SELECTED FOR NEW CAPTAIN

Following the football game with Rochester Thursday a banquet was held in the Powers Hotel in honor of the team. A number of alumni were present and in the course of the evening they made several fine speeches. But the main event of the evening was the selection of next year's captain by the members of the football team present. David Reese, who has played a brilliant game at center for the last two seasons was selected and will no doubt make the most capable captain available. Dave is out for a job on the mythical all Ohio next season and will have a fine chance. The Board of Control in reality selects the captain but they will undoubtedly agree with the selection of the players.

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE.

Fostoria, Ohio, Nov. 29.—The older boys' conference of the Y. M. C. A. is holding a three days' session here, with 30 delegates from various Ohio cities present. James Whitmore and Dr. George Fisher of New York City are the speakers. A parade was given yesterday afternoon with 400 in line, followed by a banquet last evening. All sessions are held in the new Y. M. C. A. Building, which was recently finished at a cost of $65,000. The conference will conclude Sunday evening.
